

within their boundaries has meant ruin for them.

And knowing what we do about the high financiers who are interested in American trade in these republics—J. Pierp. for instance—we should not be surprised if they were right.

G. B. Apple, Kansas City, sent gas company check for $1 and asked them to test his meter, because he didn't think it was registering all gas he was using.

Can you beat it?

Miss Annette Myers, Atlantic City school teacher, has sued Robert Cain, Camden, N. J., for $5,000 because he, in buggy, ran her down and broke her nose.

Overalls of R. H. Goodfellow, 50, engineer for O'Neil Lumber company, St. Louis, caught in belting. He was whirled into air and killed.

Damage suits entered by Mary Chamberlain, of Lincoln Center, against the men who "tarred" her, have been settled out of court for $25,000.

14-year-old son of R. G. Lowell, Wewoka, Okla., shot and killed father for abusing mother.

Joseph Kramer, 21, bridegroom of 4 months, was shot in back and seriously wounded as he left his home in St. Louis. His step-mother and wife held by police.

Eugene Holley, crippled shoemaker, confessed in open court at Terre Haute today that he murdered his wife with chloroform in order to be free to wed Mary Owen.

A. G. Jett, juror in damage suit in federal court of Memphis, Tenn., fell asleep and out of jury box.

Governor Osborn of Michigan, permitted Leo Brocken, convict, to attend funeral of father at Detroit. Brocken took oath to lead better life at father's grave.

National Republican committee has voted to hold convention in Chicago.

Kansas City judge has decided that ex-wives have right to be kissed—in moderation—although their right to kiss is doubtful.

Incompetent parents are to blame for the wayward child problem, says a New York magistrate. But who's to blame for the incompetent parent?

Eat salad once a day and dodge intestinal indigestion, says expert. Another advantage is that salad doesn't cost as much as some foods.